

Arts-Crafts See Knitting Techniques

Arts-Crafts Club of Torrance met in the patio room at the home of Mrs. Hazel Ward for their regular meeting with Mrs. Ruth Hardin and Mrs. Vivian Cook hostesses.

Mrs. Eveline Palmer, co-owner of a Knit Studio, gave a demonstration of the Speed-O-Knit machine. Many interesting stitches and designs were shown. She brought several articles that had been made on the machine, to show the members the type of garments that could be completed. Ski sweaters, baby jackets, stoles, dresses, and all types of garments were displayed.

The business session of the club was conducted by the president, Vivian Cook.

A beautiful money tree was presented to Mrs. Cora Bohrer, in honor of her birthday as the members sang "Happy Birthday" much to her surprise. The tree had been made by Ethyl Peverley.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Hazel Fossum on April 26 with Mae Jones as co-hostess.

The tables had been beautifully decorated with the traditional St. Patrick's theme and the hostesses for the evening served home made apple pie and ice cream to the following members and guests: Leah Arterburn, Maybel Banks, Rolive Bever, Cora Bohrer, Lelia Everly, Hazel Fossum, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Emily Middleton, Addie Parks, Ethel Peverley, Frances Snodgrass, Hazel Ward, Kay Robinson, Phyllis Peverly and Gertrude Trego.

Gifts from the Secret-Pals were distributed and at a late hour all left for their respective homes happy for having spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Hazel Ward.

Festive Party Honors Patty

Patty Howard celebrated her 10th birthday Sunday afternoon with a gay birthday party featuring multi-colored balloons, little Easter eggs which opened up and contained candy and surprises, and a most unusual birthday cake.

Patty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel G. Hayward, 1229 Date Ave. Patty's cake was angel food decorated with little dolls each wearing a different colored dress in a pastel shade. Games were played and prizes were won by Carol Winklebar and Patty.

Guests enjoying the afternoon were Cheryl Waters, Colleen Brennen, Carol Winklebar, Bobby League, Judy and Jill O'Hara and Noeline Hayward, Patty's sister. Unable to attend were Ann Bowen, Mary Green, Bonnie Dalton and Kathleen Jessup.

RESORT HOLIDAY

Las Vegas is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steele, 3502 W. 228th St. They leave Friday and will be gone for approximately two weeks. Special treat for the children, Karen, David and Donny, is a visit from grandmother, Mrs. L. M. Nash, of Rolling Hills, who will be with them until their parents return.

MISS PATRICIA MANS
... June Bride-elect

Mans-Boland Rites Slated June 2 at Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Mans are announcing the engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Patricia, to William John Boland.

The wedding will take place June 2 at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

Miss Mans is a graduate of Torrance High school. She attended El Camino college where she was a member of Delta Sigma Chi.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boland, is a graduate of Torrance High. He also attended El Camino college.

A honeymoon in Yosemite and Las Vegas is planned and the couple will establish a Redondo Beach home.

Juniors Study Arrangements

Junior Greenthumbers' Garden Club was privileged to have Mrs. Charlotte Maben of the South Bay Garden Club give them instruction on flower arrangements. The Juniors are preparing for their entries in the adult Greenthumbers' flower show which is scheduled for May 11 and 12.

Mrs. Maben was surrounded by the children as she demonstrated the art of arranging miniatures, arrangements in tall and low containers and dry materials. She also explained the method of drying flowers and weeds for arrangements.

Present for the instruction were Thomas Paterson, acting president in the absence of Eddie Sellmeyer, and Mary Bristol, Nancy Drumright, Claudia and Susan Fitzgerald, Kathy and Linda Haley, Alice Knight, Jo Kay Louvier, Pamela Nichols, Leslie Sautter, Cheryl Clemens, Diane Stafford and a guest, Jeanne Allen.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, 1614 Beech Ave., were Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Baughman and grandson, Stevie of Claremont.

Friends Fete Edward Fays

A gay time was had at the Edward Fay housewarming, given Saturday evening by their friends, with the primary arrangements being handled by Mr. and Mrs. George Betus and Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Johnson. The Fays' new house is at 4601 Paseo de las Tortugas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walti arrived to make sure the unsuspecting couple remained at home. The rest of the party arrived later with snacks and refreshments. The evening was spent in dancing and visiting. Presented with a gift check was a card reading, "God Bless Your Mortgaged Home."

Friends joining the Fays for the festive occasion were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Zinn, David Hurford, Fred Buxton, Carl Wolff, Henry Schmal, Eugene LePore, Paul Roetger, Jess Whitney, Walti, Mrs. Stanley Briggs, Mrs. George Hodges and the hosts. Pineapple Is Topic at Beau Jardin

"How to Grow Pineapples" was the interesting subject at the meeting of the Beau Jardin Club held April 10 at the home of Mrs. John Beattie, 22419 Warmside Ave. with Mrs. Albert Yackie as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Kenneth Harmon was the speaker. She gave three methods of starting pineapple and then demonstrated her method of rooting.

Mrs. Harmon also spoke on how to start an albesia (or silk) tree. She passed out pods of the tree for everyone to try their luck.

It was announced that the rummage sale for the School for Exceptional Children will be held Friday, April 12. Mrs. Robert Hill and Mrs. John Regan worked on the project.

Amidst the decorous bunnies and chicks, an Easter egg hunting flower spelling game was played. The winner, Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, was awarded a lovely morning glory bush.

Door prizes of a bougainvillea and pansies were won by Mrs. William Cressy.

Refreshments were served. Present at the meeting were Mmes. John Beattie, L. D. Burt, John Cariveau, William Cressy, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Leo Hayes, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, William Slingery, Fred Worgul and Albert Yackie.

Long Beach Church Rites Unite Couple

Torrance friends of the bride who is employed at Rome Cable Co. here will be interested in the wedding of Miss Roberta D. McCormick to Theodore R. Scofield, which took place last Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Eastside Christian Church in Long Beach.

The bride, daughter of Mr. James McCormick, 1039 Junipero, Long Beach, wore a lace and net gown over satin, as she walked to the altar with her father. A tiara held her illusion veil and she carried white orchids, pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Jackie Nicholson in pink taffeta was the maid of honor and Misses June Powell and Louella Long, in blue taffeta, were bridesmaids. Debbie Curtis served as flower girl.

Leo Wildgoose was best man and ushers were Bill Waldin and Richard Raines.

Rev. John Messer officiated at the marriage and John Shaffer, organist, accompanied the soloist Miss Charline Jolly. The couple, who spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas, will establish a Long Beach home. Both of the newlyweds were graduated from Wilson High and Long Beach City College.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 24 at the home of Mrs. Fred Worgul, 22421 Redbeam, with Mmes. John Regan and Fred Worgul as hostesses.
